25X1 6. [ ] Met with Mrs. Meadows, in the office of Representative August E. Johansen, concerning the meeting held at Mr. Johansen's request for [ ] and advised that our people are still checking the matter but I hoped to have a report for the Congressman by his return next Wednesday. Further advised Mrs. Meadows that if we were interested in [ ] our report would be a verbal one, but if we were not we would be pleased to make a report in writing if such was desired by the Congressman.

25X1 7. [ ] Met with Robert McManus, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, and advised that as was previously indicated, this Agency has no identification of what official source in Washington might have confirmed the presence of Chananian troops in Cuba. Mr. McManus thanked us for the advice and provided a copy of the news item which they intend to insert in their current hearing records taken from page 1 and 2 of the NEW CRUSADER (Chicago) of 12 January 1963.

25X1 8. [ ] Met with Sam Scott, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, [ ]

25X1B Also advised Mr. Scott that with regard to the Subcommittee's request for a witness for the updating of General Cabell's testimony in 1959 relating to subversion in Latin America, it would not be possible at this time, that there is just too much going on with regard to this matter at the present.

25X1 9. [ ] Advised by Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, that a source, who in the past has provided usually reliable and accurate information but could not otherwise be identified, advised the Subcommittee that between 50 and 60 Chinese Communist experts in the culture and processing of poppies arrived in Cuba.
